

★ SOCIETY

SOCIETY@THE-STAR.CO.KE

(+) ANNUAL MASK ART PRIZE-GIVING CEREMONY

The finale of the 2016 MASK creative art competition was held at Michael Joseph Centre on Thursday afternoon. The awards seek to recognise and award creativity in Kenya's upcoming fine arts industry through artwork submissions from various youth under 25 years.

1. Arya Girls' Synclaire Wanjera, Harman Preet and Bhumika Patel show off their winning entrepreneurial art. 2. Ministry of Education's senior assistant director Jane Mbugua with Kristina Academy director Elizabeth Muthoka. 3. Hotelier Allan Rivers with Mask founder Alla Tkachuk. 4. Fine Art artists Esther Mukuhi and Sitonik Nayianol. / ENOS TECHE

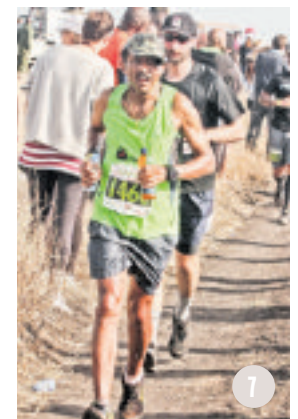

For more Society stories scan the QR code above.

ELITE 'RUN WILD' AT LEWA MARATHON

The 17th edition of the Safaricom Lewa Marathon was held at the Lewa Wildlife Conservancy, Isiolo on Saturday.

The race attracted over 1300 participants from 28 nationalities running towards the noble cause of raising funds for wildlife conservation and community projects around the conservancy.

Among the participants were Kiambu senator Kimani Wamatangi, US ambassador Robert Godec, Eritrean ambassador Beyene Russom.

CAPTIONS

1. Safaricom chairman Nicholas Ng'anga with Zaheeda Suleiman. 2. US Ambassador Robert Godec. 3. 86-year-old John Ruengo at the start of the race. 4. Kiambu Senator Kimani Wamatangi. 5. The Nairobi Pavilion's Ashish Shah, Nikon's Anish Harania and CBRE finance director Sam Malde. 6. Eastern regional officer Henry Ondiek with US Embassy's Kash Ghashghai. 7. Zawadi Nyong'o. 8. Eritrean ambassador Beyene Russom. / ENOS TECHE